

Governor Aldrew is determined that Massachusetts shall have the full benefit of recruiting in the "rebel States." He has appointed State agents for Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Florida, Georgia and Alabama; and the State agent at Washington, has been appointed provost marshal of Massachusetts for this service.

A Liverpool magistrate lately giving an opinion about some matrimonial difficulty said: "It is always a bad arrangement for married people, whether high or low, rich or poor, to have a wife's sister or brother, or other relative, living in the same house with them."

In Wayne and other counties of New York there has been within a few days great destruction of property by fires in the woods. Large quantities of timber, cord-wood, growing crops and buildings have been destroyed at various points.

The New York Journal of Commerce says: "Nothing can be more clear, after Mr. Lincoln's announcement, than the fact that this Administration is unable to make peace, and that no end of war is to be looked for during the Presidency of Mr. Lincoln."

The Excursion of the Methodist Protestant Sunday School, took place yesterday, and was largely attended. Everything passed off happily and harmoniously.

The weather is now very sultry again, with, however, appearances favorable for rain. Mosquitoes abound. The river is very low—and the flats, at low tide, look like great meadows.

It is said that Gen. Martindale will resign his commission in the Federal army on account of ill health, contracted in the trenches before Petersburg.

A young girl residing at the lower end of Water street, while engaged in washing clothes on Tuesday, accidentally upset a pot of boiling water which very severely scalded her.

H. SCHWARZ.

The side wheel steamer Kingston, of the Chesapeake Towboat Company, was run aground on Sunday morning, a few miles below the mouth of the Potomac river, on the shore of Northumberland county, Virginia, and stuck fast. The officers and crew, fourteen in number, remained on board all day Sunday, but at night the Confederates were seen coming down the beach, and the crew took to their boats and escaped. The Confederates dismantled the steamer and then destroyed her. The pilot, a Baltimorean, was taken to Philadelphia for examination. The vessel was worth fifty or sixty thousand dollars.

The Washington correspondent of the Boston Advertiser telegraphs the following:—"Gen. W. F. Smith was relieved from the command of the Eighteenth Corps in General Grant's army in consequence of insubordination to Gen. Butler. He is a personal friend of Gen. Grant, but that officer is intolerant of disobedience of orders from a superior in rank. It is said that the order relieving Gen. Smith was made at his own request."

The news of the destruction of several cotton factories in Georgia, during Garrard's raid, and the deportation of four hundred females lately employed in them, to Ohio, is confirmed, and full particulars given.

Mrs. Elliott's garden, at the south end of this city, has been robbed within the last two or three days, of vegetables to a considerable amount.
